ANTI-HUNGER ADVOCACY SHABBATON

In the spirit of Na'aseh – 'We Will Do' – learn and respond to the struggles our community faces

February 5-7

Join us as we expand on the many activities Anshe Emet is doing in the fight against hunger.

FREE ADMISSION

SHMUSY FOOD DRIVE

Help us kick off our month-long drive at the Anti-Hunger Shabbaton. Bring non-perishable items to the boxes in the lobby. Your donations will be delivered to the Greater Chicago Food Depository by SHMUSY, AES' Youth Community.

Friday Night, February 5, 7:15 p.m.

"Community Gardens" YAD event Services and Dinner

Ben Helphand, Executive Director, NeighborSpace

Learn how community gardens can be used to fight hunger and how you can get involved in similar projects.

Shabbat, Saturday, February 6

Morning Service features a d'var on hunger issues and ways to advocate for change.

Afternoon Lecture, 1:00 p.m.

Addressing Food Deserts in Chicago

Professor Daniel Block, Chicago State University

Dr. Block will discuss his research on food deserts in Chicago and how awareness of food access issues has led to new connections between food growing, food sales, and community development. He will highlight the challenges and possibilities of urban agriculture, improvements to corner stores, and efforts to open new supermarkets.

Sunday Morning, February 7, 10:30 to Noon

Anti-Hunger Advocacy Summit

in partnership with MAZON

with Congressman Quigley, State Rep Feigenholtz, Commissioner Gainer and Alderman Shiller and speakers from Night Ministry and Greater Chicago Food Depository

Join us as we push leadership to be more aggressive in their fight against hunger. Get involved by joining other MAZON supporters who incorporate social justice and hunger relief as crucial components of our lives.
